

Statement of Faith

Elizabeth Schultz

October 2017

I believe in the Triune God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

I believe in God the Father, maker of Heaven and Earth, of all that is seen and unseen.

I believe in Jesus Christ, the son of God and the redeemer of all mankind. I believe that Jesus came to earth to save us from our sins, and to show us life everlasting. His life of service and sacrifice is our example and our hope. Through his constant love and grace, we are saved. Through his example and his teachings, we see the hope for the Kingdom of God.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, who guides us in our life of faith, in our reading and understanding of scripture, and in our service to the world. The Holy Spirit binds believers of all nations together into the family of God, unifying us in our communal life of faith and in our mission to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

I believe that the Church is called to be a place of vibrant faith, unending welcome and Grace, and inspired action to serve.

I believe that we live in a broken and hurting world, full of violence and division and pain. I also believe we live in a beautiful world, full of hope and love and kindness and healing. I believe the life of Christian faith needs to honestly live in both worlds, recognizing the trauma caused by sin and brokenness, and actively seeking to speak and live truth and salvation. It is my fervent hope that God is in the midst of redeeming creation, and that we all play a part in sharing this love and hope.
