2020 Russia Mission Network Conference

Due to the pandemic circumstances we are living in worldwide this year, the 2020 Russia Mission Network Conference will be online and everyone is invited to participate. The dates for the conference are September 17, 18, & 19 at times that will accommodate a broad span of time zones. The conference will begin with an opening session on Thursday evening, followed by two ½-day sessions on Friday and Saturday.

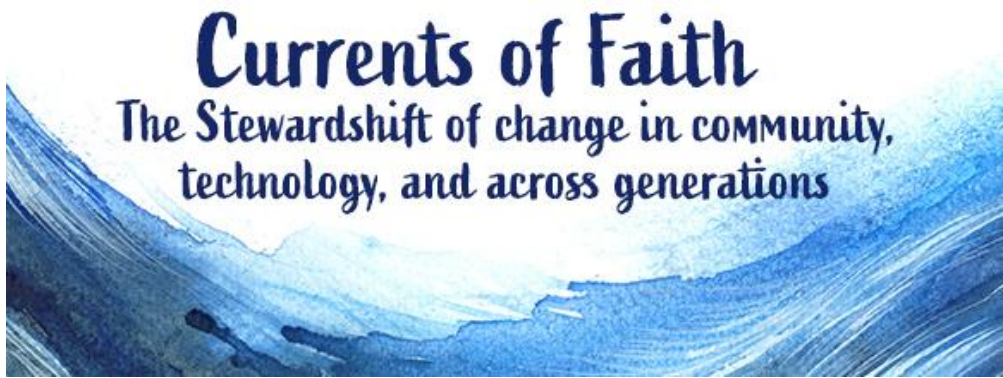

Mark your calendars! The program will expand to include Ukraine and Belarus and the issues impacting the entire region and will include speakers who might otherwise be unable to travel. It promises to be educational, enlightening, and inspiring.

This also will be a great opportunity to expand participation in the conference - it will require NO travel expense and it's FREE!

You can contact their communications liaison Jean Waters at waters.jean@gmail.com for more information.

Stewardship Kaleidoscope is moving online!

Make me know your ways, O Lord; teach me your paths.
Lead me in your truth, and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation; for you I wait all day long. - Psalm 25: 4-5

These are extraordinary times and while we can't "do church" the way we are used to, the needs of our communities and our call to be stewards of God's kingdom has not been put on hold.

This year Kaleidoscope will offer learning over three weeks in the fall to help you respond to the needs of your community, adapt to change, and think about how to engage as a church in new ways. We hope you can join us on three consecutive Tuesdays: September 22, September 29, and October 6 at 11:30am eastern/8:30am pacific.

On September 22nd hear from Eric Barreto of Princeton Theological Seminary on the Acts of the Apostles in the 21st century - imagination, vision, and creativity in responding to our call; September 29th we will learn with consultant Bonnie Ives Marden about the ways in which faith shapes our financial health, and get practical tools for church financial management; October 6th Rev. Bruce Reyes-Chow will provide perspectives on engaging congregations across generations, cultures, and ethnicity to imagine building the church for forward thinking funding and functioning.

Registration will be open soon. See more at StewardshipKaleidoscope.org
